

DUP AF Book 1 page 243

Biographical Sketch

of

Emma King

Pioneer Year ____

Born date ____ in England

Married date ____ place ____

Died date ____ in Salt Lake City

Buried date ____ place ____

Mrs. Emma J. King, a resident of this city for many years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. R. Shelton in Salt Lake City, Sunday night. Mrs. King was born in England seventy six years ago, the daughter of Samuel and Sarah Julian. She, with the rest of the family, came to Utah at an early date, and she had made her home in American Fork all this time with the exception of the last two years, which were spent with her daughters in Salt Lake City.

The following children survive: Mrs. G. R. Shelton, Mrs. J. A. Wooton, Mrs. J. L. Jennings, Mrs. William Holstein, Frank King, Mrs. Leo Shelton and Julia King of Salt Lake City and Mrs. J. A. Fraser of Garfield.

Joseph King, the husband of Emma J. King passed away several years previous to her death.